JOSEPH BROWN

Joseph Brown died in Jackson Co., Mo. 1848. Refers to his wife in his will as Mary Leland and again Mary Leland Brown. (My family records indicate that her name was also Webster.) She may have been a widow belonging to Leland family. She is also traditionally referred to as sister of Daniel Webster of Albemarle County, Virginia. (Check census for 1880, Joseph Madison Brown in Fannin County, Texas to secure information about his parents).

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOSEPH BROWN

Jackson County Probate Court

Independence, Missouri

In the name of God, Amen. I, Joseph Brown of the county of Jackson and State of Missouri, of sound and disposing mind although weak in body and not long expecting to live, desirous of disposing of the Estate with which God has blessed me according to my will, do hereby declare and publish this as my last will and testament.

In the first place I resign my body to the dust and my soul to God and my wish is after my death my body shall be buried in a decent Christian manner.

I dispose of my worldly goods as follows: My just debts are first to be paid out of private Estate.

Second, I will and bequeath to my wife Mary Leland all of my estate, both Real and personal for the purpose of her maintenance with full power to sell and dispose of the same to any person and also she is authorized at any time to divide any property belonging to the Estate between my five children by will or otherwise as she may see proper.

I also make and appoint Mary Leland Brown my Executrix of this my last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 24th day of July A.D. 1848.

was born in Jackson County, Missouri, February 9, 1847, and is a son of one of Jackson County's early settlers. His parents were Thomas and Nancy Pitcher, who came to Missouri in 1830, being originally from Kentucky. The former was proprietor of a large flouring mill at Independence and the son soon became interested in its machinery. In the course of time, he was an enigneer. In 1861, he enlisted under General Raines for six months service during the war, participating in the battles of Rock Creek and Lexington. He was taken sick and returned home, after which he reenlisted under Colonel Jones, and was attached to General Price's command. He was with him during the entire war, and surrendered at Shreveport, Louisiana. Returning to Jackson County, Missouri, he devoted his time to farming till 1875, when he moved to Belton, Cass County, Missouri. Mr. Pitcher was married to Miss Jennie Smith in 1871. She is a native of Pike County, Kentucky, born January 2, 1851. They have one child, a daughter, Bettie. They are both members of the Christian Church. During the late war, Mr. Thomas Pitcher was a captain under General Price.

My dear Mrs. Greene:

In reply to your letter of the 22nd, in which you enclosed $3.00, we are sending you copies of the three land grants mentioned in your letter. These copies are not certified as the fee for a certified copy is $5.00 and the fee for an uncertified copy is $1.00. As these grants were not given for military service, no doubt the uncertified copies will serve your purpose.

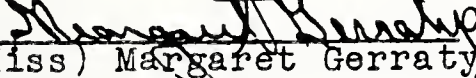

For your information will say that Hugh Brown received two grants in Greene County, one in the year 1791 and the other in the year 1793.

In the year 1790 Joseph Brown received three grants in Greene County and in the year 1792 he received two grants. Between the years 1782 and 1797, Joseph Brown received nine grants of land in Washington County. Greene County was formed from part of Washington County in the year 1783.

If you are interested in any of these North Carolina grants, we will be glad to furnish copies upon receipt of the proper fee.

Very truly yours,

I, Josephine N. Greene, Independence, Missouri, make affidavit to the following:

The foregoing Land Grants to Joseph Brown and his father, Hugh Brown, Jr., are true copies received by me from Miss Margaret Gerraty, Clerk of the Tennessee Land Office, Tennessee State Library and Archives, State Department of Education, State Capitol, Nashville, Tennessee.

The last Will and Testament of Joseph Brown was copied by me at the office of the Jackson County Probate Court, Independence, Missouri, from Will Book L, page 125; the bond of Joseph M. Brown, with Mary L. Brown and Michael Collins as securities is found in Record Book H, page 283; the record of Joseph M. Brown versus Ann Brown and Mary L. Brown, her guardian, is found in Record X, pages 16 to 18. The foregoing are true copies- the last named record is found in the Office of the Recorder of Deeds, Jackson County Court House, Independence, Missouri.

The Will of Captain Hugh Brown, from the Probate Clerk's Office, Clay County Court House, Liberty, Missouri, Box 1, the Appraisement of the Estate of Captain Hugh Brown, Box 1, and the record of the Captain Hugh Brown Estate, naming his heirs and heirs of his son, Joseph Brown, deceased, Box 1, are true copies, from the original records, made by me.

On Page 10, the deeds from the Greene County Court House, Greene County, Tennessee, were procured for me from the original records, by Mrs. Ferol Frost Hubbs, of Greeneville, Tennessee. Mrs. Hubbs stated that the Will of Hugh Brown, Sr., who died prior to August 26, 1796, was one of the early wills of the County which is missing. The deed in Book No. 4, page 256 gives the name of his wife, Agness, Hugh Brown, Jr. is one of the witnesses.

In Deed Book 7, page 24., Hugh Brown, Jr., formerly of Greene County, Tennessee, but then of Barren County, Kentucky, deeds to John Morris, of Greene County, 100 acres in Greene County, Tennessee, on the South side of the Nolachucky River. Mrs. Hubbs states this is the land granted to Hugh Brown, Sr., by the State of North Carolina. Both Hugh Brown, Jr. and Alexander Brown were heirs of Hugh Brown, Sr.

Alexander Brown accompanied his brother to Barren County, Kentucky, and the marriage bonds of that county show that he married (1) Kissiah Brothers, March 21, 1802 and (2) Esther Phillips, August, 9, 1806.

Miss Ona A. Willoughby, of Scottsville, Allen County, Kentucky, made the search in the Barren County, Kentucky Court records for me,

The first part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It is essential for the company to have a clear and concise system in place to ensure that all data is properly recorded and stored. This will allow for easy access and retrieval of information when needed.

The second part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular communication and collaboration between all team members. It is crucial for everyone to stay informed and updated on the latest developments and changes within the organization. This will help to ensure that everyone is working towards the same goals and objectives.

The third part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a high level of security and confidentiality for all company data. It is essential to implement strong security measures to protect sensitive information from unauthorized access and theft. This will help to ensure that the company's reputation and financial stability are not compromised.

The fourth part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular training and development for all employees. It is crucial for everyone to stay up-to-date on the latest industry trends and technologies. This will help to ensure that the company remains competitive and innovative in the market.

The fifth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a positive and professional work environment. It is essential to foster a culture of respect, collaboration, and open communication. This will help to ensure that all employees feel valued and motivated to do their best work.

The sixth part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular monitoring and evaluation of the company's performance. It is crucial to have a clear system in place to track key performance indicators and identify areas for improvement. This will help to ensure that the company is meeting its goals and objectives.

The seventh part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a strong relationship with all stakeholders. It is essential to communicate openly and honestly with all parties involved. This will help to ensure that the company is meeting the needs and expectations of all its stakeholders.

The eighth part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular financial reporting and analysis. It is crucial to have a clear system in place to track the company's financial performance and identify areas for improvement. This will help to ensure that the company is maintaining a strong financial position.

The ninth part of the paper discusses the importance of maintaining a clear and concise communication plan. It is essential to have a system in place to ensure that all information is properly communicated and understood. This will help to ensure that everyone is on the same page and working towards the same goals.

The tenth part of the paper focuses on the importance of regular documentation and record-keeping. It is crucial to have a clear system in place to ensure that all information is properly recorded and stored. This will help to ensure that the company has a complete and accurate record of all its activities.

and the records on Page 11 are true copies of the report, submitted by her, following the search at the Barren County, Kentucky Court House.

In Deed Book D, page 56 is found the Power of Attorney to Hugh Brown, of Barren County, Kentucky, to sell land for Alexander Brown, of Stewart County, Tennessee, dated 19th day of June 1814.

In Deed Book C, page 451, Barren County Court Clerk's Office, on August 24, 1813, "Hugh Brown and wife, Margaret, of Barren County, deeded land to William Tinsley, being part of land he now lives on. "

On Deed Book C, page 476, on August 13, 1814, "Hugh Brown appoints Samuel Anderson his attorney in fact to sell land."

About two months after Alexander Brown left Barren County, Kentucky for Stewart County, Tennessee, his brother Hugh appoints an attorney to sell the remainder of his land in Barren County, and also removed to Tennessee.

The clerk of the Stewart County, Tennessee Court made a thorough search of the wills, deeds and marriage bonds of Stewart County, and advised me there was no record of these Brown brothers in that County. So, they removed to Franklin County, Tennessee in the Central portion of the state, where we find Hugh and his son, Joseph receiving grants of land in 1817.

Mr. William Galbraith Smith, Benjamin Franklin Station, Washington D.C. found the foregoing Pension Record of Joseph Brown, son of Hugh, Jr. in the National Archives, which shows that he enlisted in the War of 1812 at Winchester, which is the county seat of Franklin County, Tennessee, and that he married Mary Leland Webster in Bedford, an adjoining county.

The foregoing record from the North Carolina State Department of Archives and History, is a true copy from the North Carolina Revolutionary Army Accounts, which was sent me by Henry Howard Eddy, Acting Secretary. (See page 12.)

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT OF JOSEPH BROWN
Jackson County Probate Court

In the name of God, Amen. I, Joseph Brown of the County of Jackson and State of Missouri, of sound and disposing mind although weak in body and not long expecting to live, desirous of disposing of the Estate with which God has blessed me according to my will, do hereby declare and publish this as my last will and testament.

In the first place I resign my body to the dust and my soul to God and my wish is after my death my body shall be buried in a decent Christian manner.

I dispose of my worldly goods as follows: My just debts are first to be paid out of private Estate.

Second, I will and bequeath to my wife Mary Leland all of my estate, both Real and personal for the purpose of her maintenance with full power to sell and dispose of the same to any person and also she is authorized at any time to divide any property belonging to the Estate between my five children by will or otherwise as she may see proper.

I also make and appoint Mary Leland Brown my Executrix of this my last will and Testament.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix my seal this 24th day of July A.D. 1848.

That a certain Hugh Brown, . . ., died at the County of Clay about the year, Eighteen Hundred and thirty two, leaving a last will and testament which was duly proved, established, and recorded in the office of the Clerk of the County Court of Clay County; and in which Cicero Brown, Joseph Brown, and Samuel Telford were appointed executors, as relation to the record of said Court will appear:-That said executors made a final settlement of their executorship or administration of said estate, with said County Court at the September Term thereof A.D. 1836:

That Joseph Brown, one of said executors died about the month of October A.D. 1848 thus leaving the said Cicero Brown and Samuel Telford sole executors or Trustees (as survivors) under the last will and testament of said deceased.

Your Petitioners state that under the last will and testament of said deceased and after final Settlement of his estate and the payment of his debts and the costs and expenses of the administration, the residuum of his Estate was divided among his heirs and legatees with the exception of one of his daughters viz:-Margaret Cartmill (formerly Brown), intermarried with a certain John Cartmill, whose share as proportion of the estate as then ascertained and determined amounted to the sum of Two hundred and Fifty one Dollars and twenty-six cents, etc.

Petitioners state that said John Cartmill and Margaret Cartmill, his wife, removed from the State of Tennessee with intention of going to Ohio so abiding, and that they died without issue, etc.....

APPRAISEMENT OF ESTATE OF CAPTAIN HUGH BROWN.

From the Probate Clerk's Office, Clay County Court House, Liberty, Missouri, Box 1.

"We the undersigned being called on and sworn to value the estate of Capt. Dear Mr. Rutherford:

I am enclosing a copy of the D.A.R. paper of Mrs. Hotchkiss as you requested.

I have also checked the pension record of ~~Joel McClendon~~ and the B.L.W. record of Joseph Brown. We had a little difficulty locating the latter as you did not give me the correct listing--you gave it as " W.L.49557" and it should read "B.L.W. 49557";also it will help each time to give the name of the state from which a person served. I have picked out only those papers which I think should be sufficient to prove the service and relationship of the persons involved.

Before any work is done, payment must be made and if you will kindly send me right away your check for $10.60, I shall see that the photostats are ordered as soon as I hear from you. This total includes charges for services, and the cost of the D.A.R. paper enclosed.

Adjutant General,
State of Tennessee,
Nashville, Tenn.

Dear Sir:

Would you kindly send me a certified copy of the military record of Joseph Brown?

War of 1812. He was a private in Capt. Geo.
Smith's Co. (Tenn.), and was in the Battle of the Horseshoe, Tenn., and called the Creek War. That he volunteered at Winchester, Tenn. for 3 mos. Served 14 days; honorable discharge at Fort Departe or Fort Shothe (Shothe? - Sholie?)

Auditor's slip shows Joseph Brown served from
Dec. 24, 1813 to April 3, 1814.

Any information regarding where he might have enlisted from would be of benefit.

I understand, that a pension application was made on this #W. L. 49557.

Yours very truly,

AFFIDAVIT, May 7, 1855 - Clay County, Mo., made by Mary L. Brown, 63, of Clay Co. - swears she is widow of Joseph Brown who was a private in Capt. (George) Smith's Co. (Tenn.) and who was in the Battle of the Horseshoe, Tenn. and called the Creek War - that J.B. volunteered at Winchester, Tenn. for 3 mos., served 14 days; honorable discharge at Fort Departe or Fort Shothe (Shothes? Sholie?) that she married J.B. in Bedford Co., Tenn. August 16, 18 -- she is not sure of date but thinks it upwards of 35 years ago. Married by a Baptist Preacher, James Walker. Her name before that was Mary L. Webster. That J.B. died Aug. 1, 1848, Jackson Co., Missori.

Samuel Telford and Jackson Sisson were witnesses and had known J.B. and wife more than 20 years.

A letter (1855) with the file statesthat no marriage record had been found - that in 1830 the Courthouse (Bedford Co.) had been blown away and many papers lost.

Auditor's slip shows J.B. served from Dec. 24, 1813 to April 3, 1814. James Davidson of Clay CO. testified as a neighbor (to both of them).

August 16, 18, she is not sure of date but thinks it upwards of 35 years ago - married by a Baptist preacher, James Walker - that her name before that was Mary L. Webster - that J.B. died August 1 1848, Jackson County, Mo. Samuel Telford and Jackson Sisson were witnessed and had known J.B. and wife more than 20 years.

A letter (1855) with the file states that no marriage record had been found - that in 1830 the courthouse (Bedford Co.) had been blown away and many papers lost.

Auditor's slip shows J.B. served from December 24, 1813 to April 3, 1814.

James D. Davidson of Clay Co. testified as a neighbor (to both of them).

GRAVES MARKED BY D.A.R.

Two Daughters of soldiers of the American Revolution, Mrs. Nancy Tyler Holmes and Mrs. Rebecca Noland Collins, were marked this afternoon at Elmwood Cemetery by the Independence Pioneers Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The ceremony at the cemetery was preceded by a patriotic program at 2 o'clock, held at the First Presbyterian Church.

The assemblage at the church was called to order with the bugle assembly call at 2 o'clock, by William Gould, Boy Scout. Mrs. H.J. Ott, regent of the local chapter presided. The Reverend James E. Alexander, pastor of the First Methodist Church, South, gave the invocation. This was followed by the audience singing "America". Miss Sybil Sewell, of Kansas City, a great-great-granddaughter of Mrs. Holmes, gave a sketch of her life and ancestry. Miss Selma Ohman sang a solo, and a sketch of Mrs. Rebecca Noland Collins' life was given by Mrs. L.W. King, of Kansas City, a granddaughter of Mrs. Collins.

The group then adjourned to the Elmwood Cemetery where they went first to the grave of Mrs. Holmes on the James Tyler Holmes lot. Mrs. Holmes was the daughter of Captain Robert Tyler. There flowers were strewn on the grave by Margaret Truman, a daughter of Judge and Mrs. Harry S. Truman, and Rebecca and Eleanor Burrus, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Burrus, and great-great-granddaughters of Mrs. Holmes. The marker was unveiled by Miss Katherine Huttig and Mrs. James A. Southern, both great-great-granddaughters of Mrs. Holmes. Taps were sounded and the party went to the grave of Mrs. Collins.

The burial place of Mrs. Collins is on the Collins lot. She was a daughter of Ledstone Noland, whose service during the Revolutionary War was with the North Carolina militia. Mrs. L.W. King unveiled the marker on the grave after it was strewn with flowers by Nancy Lee and Helen Latimer, daughters of Mrs. Floyd Latimer. Taps ended the ceremony.

In the Jackson Circuit Court March Term, 1855.

I, Saml D. Lucas, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County aforesaid, do certify that Benjamin F. Thomson, late Sheriff of Jackson County, on the tenth day of said term, it being the 24th of March 1855, acknowledged in open court, the foregoing deed to be his act and deed for the uses and purposes therein contained.

In testimony whereof I hereunto set my hand and affix the seal of said Court at office in Independence this 24th day of March, A.D., 1855.

Saml Lucas, Clerk

The first part of the document discusses the importance of maintaining accurate records of all transactions. It emphasizes that proper record-keeping is essential for the integrity of the financial system and for the ability to detect and prevent fraud. The document also outlines the responsibilities of individuals involved in the process, including the need for transparency and accountability.

In the second part, the document details the procedures for conducting audits and investigations. It provides a step-by-step guide to ensure that all steps are followed correctly, from the initial planning phase to the final reporting. The document also includes a list of common pitfalls to avoid and a checklist of items to be reviewed during the process.

The third part of the document focuses on the importance of communication and collaboration between different departments and individuals. It stresses that effective communication is key to the success of any project or investigation. The document provides examples of how to communicate effectively, including the use of clear and concise language and the importance of listening to others.

The final part of the document discusses the importance of ongoing training and development for all individuals involved in the process. It emphasizes that the financial system is constantly evolving, and individuals must stay up-to-date on the latest trends and technologies. The document provides a list of recommended training topics and a schedule for ongoing education.

In conclusion, the document reiterates the importance of maintaining accurate records, conducting thorough audits, and communicating effectively. It also emphasizes the need for ongoing training and development to ensure the highest level of performance and integrity in the financial system.

Court, the foregoing deed to be his act and deed for the uses and purposes therein contained.

In testimony whereof I hereunto Set my hand and affix the seal of the said Court at office in Independence this 24th day of March, A.D. 1855.

Now as to the Brown family. I am enclosing the record of a John S. Brown, b. Va., 1801-02 who may have been a relative of Joseph. I did not locate Joseph's widow, Mary or her family in the 1850 record here - maybe they had moved after Joseph's death. You will note that I found an 1840 record of a Joseph Brown which may be your man. On second thought, so that it will not confuse your files, I am giving that record here, and running a line through the record on the Noland page of the data. Here it is:

Joseph M. Brown

Ann Brown (A person of unsound mind)

Mary L. Brown, her guardian

Now, at this day, comes the Plaintiff aforesaid by his attorney, and on the motion of the Court appoints John W. Reed, guardian ad litem for the said defendant Ann Brown; and thereupon said guardian files answer for the defendant, and by consent of the parties herein, this case is taken up for hearing and submitted to the Court upon the Petition, answer exhibit and proof and it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here that said Plaintiff and defendant (by purchase as hereinafter mentioned) and as heirs of Joseph Brown deceased, are the legal owners and tenants in common of the following described Real Estate lying in the County of Jackson and State of Missouri to wit:

The west half of the North West quarter of section No. 21, in Township No. 49 of range No. 33 Containing 80 acres and are entitled thereto as follows, to wit: The said Ann Brown as an heir of the said decedent, to the equal undivided one fifth part of said Real Estate, and the said plaintiff, Joseph M. Brown in his own right, as such heir and as the owner of the dower interest of said Mary L. Brown, as widow of said decedent, and the interest of James W. (M.) Brown and Miletus Brown, and Alexander M. Brown, as heirs of said decedent held by Deed of Conveyance to the equal undivided four fifths of said Real Estate as aforesaid, it is therefore considered and adjudged by the Court, here that partition of the premises aforesaid be made between the parties aforesaid, according to the rights and interests aforesaid, by the Court ascertained. And, it appearing to the satisfaction of the Court here from the proof offered in this cause, that partition of said lands cannot be made without great prejudice to the owners thereof:

It is therefore ordered by the Court here that the Sheriff of Jackson County proceed to sell the said real estate as aforesaid, on a credit of twelve months, taking Bond with good security therefor, and that he report his proceedings in the premises and this cause is continued.

By virtue of and pursuant to which said order, I, the Sheriff aforesaid did on the 15th day of September, A.D. 1853, between the hours of 9 o'clock, A.M. and 5 o'clock P.M. of that day, and while the Jackson Circuit Court was in session and during the September Term thereof A.D. 1853 at the Court House door in the city of Independence proceed to offer the Real Estate in said order mentioned, for sale at Public Auction to the highest and best bidder on a credit of twelve months, having given at least twenty days previous notice of the time, terms and place of said sale, together with a description of the Real Estate to be sold and where situated, by advertisement by me signed as Sheriff as aforesaid, and published in the "The Occidental Messenger", a newspaper printed and published in the said County of Jackson and that at said sale, Joseph M. Brown being the highest and best bidder for said Real Estate at the price of twenty dollars per acre, making the aggregate amount sixteen hundred dollars for the entire tract aforesaid, the same was stricken off and sold to him for that sum, which said sale so by me made as sheriff as aforesaid was by me reported to Court at the January Adjourned Term A.D. 1854, which said report was by said Court duly approved, and whereas, said purchase money has been fully paid to me the said Joseph M. Brown receipt of which is hereby acknowledged.

Now therefore, know ye, that in consideration of the premises aforesaid, and also, of the said sum of sixteen hundred dollars to me in hand paid the said Joseph M. Brown, as aforesaid, and by virtue of the authority vested in me by law, I, Benjamin F. Thomson, late sheriff of Jackson County, and State of Missouri, do hereby give, grant, bargain, sell and convey to him, the said Joseph M. Brown, his heirs and assigns forever, all the right, title and interest of the said Owners above mentioned in and to the West half of the North West quarter of Section No. 21 in Township No. 49 of Range 33 (containing 80 acres) that I might or could sell as sheriff as aforesaid, by virtue of said order and advertisement, To have and to hold the same together with all and singular the rights, privileges, and appertinances thereunto, belonging or in anywise appertaining unto him, the said Joseph M. Brown, his heirs and assigns forever.

In Testimony whereof I, Benjamin F. Thomson, late sheriff of Jackson County, in the State of Missouri have hereunto set my hand and seal this 24th day of March A.D. 1855.

In the Jackson Circuit Court March Term, 1855,

I, Sam'l D. Lucas, Clerk of the Circuit Court, within and for the County aforesaid, do certify that Benjamin F. Thomson, late Sheriff of Jackson County, on the tenth day of said Term, it being the 24th of March 1855, acknowledged in open Court, the foregoing deed to be his act and deed for the uses and purposes therein contained.

In testimony whereof I hereunto Set my hand and affix the seal of said Court at office in Independence this 24th day of March, A. D. 1855.

I, Josephine N. Greene (Mrs. Joseph Wayne), of Independence, Missouri, make affidavit to the following:

The marriage bond of Joseph M. Brown and Louesa (Eliza) Collins is a true copy from Marriage Records Vol. 1, page 33, found in office of the Recorder, Jackson County Court House, Independence, Missouri.

Abstract of property of Michael Collins, Kaw Township (now Kansas City), Missouri, is a true copy of part of the original abstract now in possession of Mrs. Floyd Latimer, of Independence, Missouri, who is a great-granddaughter of Michael and Rebecca Collins.

The foregoing U.S. Census reports of the Brown, Collins and Noland families were copied by Miss Edna V. Kinnaman, of Independence, Missouri, from the National Archives, Bureau of Census, Washington, D.C.

The newspaper articles from "The Independence Examiner", Independence, Missouri, of date, June 14, 1929, and from the "Kansas City Star", May 24, 1936, Section C, pages 1 and 2 are true copies from newspaper clippings in my possession; the Pension Record of Ledstone Noland is a true copy from The Department of the Interior, Bureau of Pensions, Washington, D.C., and was procured for me by The Honorable Edgar C. Ellis, House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., dated June 11, 1929.

Mrs. Abner Mason, a resident of Kansas City, Missouri, aged about eighty-two years, told me that her husband was a grandson of William Noland, Sr., son of Ledstone Noland, Revolutionary soldier, buried in the Pitcher Cemetery, and that Rebecca Noland Collins, Eliza Noland Parrish, Henrietta Noland Glascock, and Susan Noland Stewart were sisters of William Noland, Sr. Mrs. Mason's mother-in-law, who was a Noland, spoke of members of the family frequently, while living in Abner Mason's home.

Acknowledged and sworn to before me this 19th day of April, 1948.
